

War memorials, Kings County

<http://ns1763.ca/remem/countymon.html>

<http://ns1763.ca/remem/countymon.html#kingsco>

Avonport: Located at the intersection of Oak Island Road with West Brooklyn Road (view point park)

Berwick: Located on the north side of Main Street in front of the Legion

Brow of Mountain: Located on Brow Mountain Road, about 4km north from Centreville (flight crash site) Turn right onto Brow of Mountain Road. It's on the left-hand side before #1200.

Canning: Located in the intersection of Main Street (Highway 221) and North Avenue (Highway 358) This is believed to be the second oldest military monument in Nova Scotia.

AND

Located on the south side of Main Street (Highway 221) adjacent to the Post Office

AND

Located on the south side of Main Street (Highway 221) at the Pleasant Street intersection

Kentville: Located at 37 River Street at the Legion

AND

Located on the north side of Park Street (Highway 1), at Denison Avenue Kentville Memorial Park

AND bench and sundial in front of Kings County Municipality

Kingston: Located on the east side of Marshall Road about 40m north from Highway One

CFB Greenwood was established in 1942 as a Royal Air Force Station

as part of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan (BCATP).

The BCATP was a plan to expand all Commonwealth air forces.

Greenwood was used as a training base during WW2.

Port Williams: Behind the Port Williams Community Centre/fire hall. There is a sign commemorating George Price and Mary Peake and their contributions.

Sheffield Mills: Located at Sheffield Mills Community Hall, #98 Black Hole Road

Wolfville: Acadia War Memorial Gymnasium Located at 550 Main Street (Highway 1)

AND

Located on the south side of Main Street (Highway 1) in front of the Post Office

